

The Wild Ways

Privacy Statement

We, The Wild Ways, adhere to the NCS Code of Ethics guidance to uphold client privacy:

“Confidentiality, Maintenance of Records and Recording of Sessions”

All Practitioners working across our organisation: Maintain strict confidentiality within the client and Associate/Mentor/YPG relationship, always provided that such confidentiality is neither inconsistent with the Associate/Mentor/YPG’s own safety or the safety of the client, the client’s family members or other members of the public nor in contravention of any legal action (i.e. criminal, coroner or civil court cases where a court order is made demanding disclosure) or legal requirement (e.g. Children’s Acts).”

See also our

- Data Protection and Privacy Policy and
- Confidentiality Guidance for Keeping Families Safe